

Numbers 22-24: Balaam

Introduction

- Satan sought a new way to fight against the people of God... not through armies and leaders, but by a curse

Balak Sends for Balaam

- Seeing all the danger around him, instead of preparing for war and for battle, Balak king of Moab sent for Balaam to come and curse the Israelites.
- Who is Balaam?
 - Does not belong to the people of God
 - He was a magician or diviner and God used him for His divine mission and purpose
 - St Gregory of Nyssa believes that Balaam was using satanic power, but God was showing the inability of Satan to harm His children; that if Satan intends to curse, he is committed to bless.
 - Origen believes Balaam was a magician using Satan's power, but God intervened because of His love for Israel
 - Revelation 2:14 "who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication"
- God speaks to Balaam and commands him
 - Balaam even replies "the Lord my God"

Balaam, the Donkey, and the Angel

•

Balaam's First Prophecy

- Speaks of the incarnation

Balaam's Second Prophecy

- Speaks of the passions and Resurrection

Balaam's Third Prophecy

- Speaks of the Day of Pentecost

Balaam Foretells Israel's Happiness

Balaam's Fourth Prophecy

Revision #2

Created 2021-05-25 12:21:36 UTC by Morcous Wahba

Updated 2021-06-16 01:07:28 UTC by Morcous Wahba